

#riberabilingual

At the end of last November all of the students of IES Ribera de Castilla Bilingual Section carried out their own BLACK FRIDAY promotions.

Each group took a different subject and tried to sell its best asset to the rest of the class... by doing a video commercial or performing a Trade Fair oral presentation.

1st ESO (TECHNOLOGY) had to sell the best tool and EVA GONZALEZ FUENTES stood out by encouraging customers to buy a nice Hammer.

LUCIA AGUADO RANGEL's pre-Christmas commercial selling a Drill and M^a JOSE CARNICER ALONSO's Silicone gun got second and third distinctions.

2nd ESO (P.E.) had to sell the best sportsman/woman that's ever existed. The best videos from 2-F were made by DANIEL MARTIN, promoting Dominican Taekwondo medalist Gabriel Mercedes... and ITZIAR MARTIN, attesting Michael Phelps superb skills.

2-E's winner was LUNA GARCÍA after selling all the expertise of synchronised swimmer Andrea Fuentes... and HECTOR IVAYLOV actually jumped onto an extraordinary ovation with his video about Ruth Beitia, a huge commercial and sporting success.

3rd ESO (Geography) turned into a Travel Agency and had to sell an exciting trip to a breathtaking worldwide destination.

The most appreciated videos were about Lapland (by IRINA JOLIN & CARLA GONZALEZ), Scandinavia (by YAIZA DE LA RIVA & MARTA SALVADOR) and New Orleans + Jamaica (by VIOLETA CARRASCO & SOFIA DEL POZO).

Now that most borders are closed, thanks to this project we've been able to travel without moving.

4th ESO (HISTORY) had to pick historical events and characters and James Watt's invention got the biggest ovation due to its witty slogan: STEAM IS OUR DREAM (Courtesy of SARA, OSCAR and NAHIR)

The American Revolution / War of Independence came close with a special anti-imperialist promotion and Philip V from Spain became the third best selling product due to a popular mixture of innovative reforms and unexpected sex-appeal.

Congratulations to all the participants (students & teachers) and see you all soon in the next Ribera Bilingual activity!!!
